At the end of the program, the 1914 Japanese kimono worn by Mrs. Goodspeed as Marcet, which was a gift from Jane Addams to her step-mother Anna Haldeman Adams, was donated to the museum by Paul Fry, left, on behalf of himself and his sister Jean Joyce, owners for many years.

Olga Gize Carlisle, above left, and Ann Mosher and Pam Rosmann, below left, were among those who enjoyed Mrs. Goodspeed’s program.

Lois Macum and Karl Erickson enjoyed the post program refreshments.

ECHOES OF CEDARVILLE
OCTOBER 2008
Cedarville Area Historical Society

Cedarville’s Jane Goodspeed entertained a spellbound audience on September 23 when she transformed herself into Marcet Haldeman-Julius, author, actress, publisher, wife, mother, bank officer and niece of Jane Addams. Dressed as Marcet in early twentieth century clothes and using photos and artifacts, Mrs. Goodspeed spun the 1916 fairy tale set along Cedar Creek that was written by Marcet. Mrs. Goodspeed’s performance marked the end of the historical society’s 2008 evening programs.
Jane Addams Festival Big Success

Off and running in 5K

Candy in the haystack

Sack race hoppers!

Always time for talk

Cake walk selections

Nate Dale and Cindy Lloyd, left, three times horse shoe winners. Nathan Myers, another repeat winner, and Angela Damin, fastest male and female in 5K run.

Steady, steady

Don’t drop it!!