

Rosabelle Cronau Research Center

Historical society members and the public can use the Rosabelle Cronau Research Center on the museum's second floor.

In the center you will find books, magazines, documents and electronically recorded material related to the history of the Cedarville area and the state of Illinois. Included are books written about or by Jane Addams, Cedarville's most famous citizen.

Persons interested in more than general research about Cedarville should contact the historical society at 815-563-4485 or by e-mail.

Museum Art Gallery

The museum's second floor art gallery in the LeRoy Wilson Theater features four 48 by 68 inch acrylic murals by Cedarville area artists Harlan Corrie, Dan Edler, Roger Goodspeed and Duane Smith. They portray the village topically rather than chronologically. The gallery also has 19 smaller original paintings belonging to the society. A booklet of the collection is available for two dollars.

The second floor rooms can be reached by using the one button elevator on the museum's first floor.
