CAHS Luncheon at Museum February 4

The February 4 Cedarville Area Historical Society soup, salad, sandwich and dessert luncheon and annual meeting will convene this year in the Cedarville Museum on top of the Second Street hill.

The move from the community center to the museum is possible because that building now has new and modern food serving facilities. The use of the museum will also give visitors the opportunity to be the first to see dozens of the new Addams family artifacts that have been added to the exhibit collection.

This seventeenth annual event has always been held on so-called Super Bowl Sunday, the day the top two American professional football teams clash for the honor of being called “top dog” for a year.

The lunch, which is open to members and non-members of the historical society, starts at 11 a.m. and ends at 1 p.m. The lunch, which always includes at least four homemade soups and dozens of homemade pastries, costs $6 for adults and $2 for children under 12. Second helpings are free.

In addition to enjoying the lunch, CAHS members will also receive a copy of the organization’s annual financial report and be asked to vote for three persons to serve for three years on the nine member board of directors.

The lunch will be served in the second floor meeting room. A one button elevator to the second floor is available for handicapped visitors.

There is ample on-site parking. In the event of snow, the street to the museum site and the parking lot will be plowed.
History Class Sign Up Ends March 7
